Upon approval by a 80% Vote of Members at the special meeting called for that purpose, a formal call may then be extended to the prospective Lead Pastor. In the event that the recommended name loses an 80% Vote of Members, or in the event that the prospective Lead Pastor does not accept the call, then the Pastoral Search Committee shall resume its function in finding an alternative recommendation to be made to the Members until such time that an acceptable Lead Pastor is found.
- 23.8 Whenever a vacancy occurs in Ministry Staff, the Lead Pastor and Board may establish whatever process they deem appropriate. At a minimum, for a candidate to receive a call to Ministry Staff, he or she must be approved by the Lead Pastor and by a 75% Vote of the Board. The Lead Pastor and the Board may also decide to require the approval of Members by a 75% Vote at a Meeting called for that purpose. - 25.1 The Lead Pastor or a member of Ministry Staff may be removed from his or her position with the Church for any reason upon an eighty percent Vote of the Board.
- 25.2 Nothing contained in the said procedure shall preclude the employee from receiving whatever notice or equivalent monetary settlement is legally appropriate in the circumstances, if any. In the event of a disagreement between the Church and the employee concerning the amount of notice or monetary settlement, if any, that is appropriate, then before any legal action is commenced the matter shall first be referred to a Person or Persons mutually acceptable to the Church and the employee to resolve such dispute in a spirit of conciliation worthy of maintaining a Christian witness to the Church and the community.

- (a) be personally committed to Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour and give evidence thereof; and
 - (b) review and sign an engagement agreement with the Church that provides that the employee recognizes and agrees that employment or permanent contract work with the Church requires that the lifestyle of such employee must not evidence unethical or immoral conduct or behaviour that in the opinion of the Board is unbecoming of a Christian or contrary to biblical principles, and as such, the employee will be subject to the authority of the Church as expressed in the Church Constitution and all Church policies, including provisions dealing with Discipline, in the same manner as if such person is a Member.

The notice for all Meetings of Members shall include the date, time, place and purpose of the meeting and shall contain sufficient information to permit the Member to form a reasoned judgment on the decision to be taken, and shall include the text of motions to be presented. Notice of each Meeting of Members must remind the Member that the Member has the right to vote by proxy.
- 29.5 Waiver of Notice - A Member may waive notice of a Meeting of Members and attendance of any such Person at a Meeting of Members shall constitute a waiver of notice of the Meeting, except where such Person attends a Meeting for the express purposes of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.
- 29.6 Omission of Notice - The accidental omission to give notice of any Meeting of Members or any irregularity in the notice of any such meeting or the non-receipt of any notice by any Member or by the auditor or the Corporation shall not invalidate any Resolution passed or any proceedings taken at any Meeting of Members, provided that no Member objects to such omission or irregularity.
- 29.7 Quorum - A quorum for a Meeting of Members shall be 33% of Members who are on the active list, who are of voting age and whose right to vote has not been terminated. A secret ballot may be held either upon the decision of the Chairman or upon request of any Member and shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs. The result of a secret ballot shall be deemed to be the decision of the meeting at which the secret ballot was held. A request for a secret ballot may be withdrawn.

- 29.10 Voting Rights and Proxies - Votes at Meetings of Members may be given either personally or by proxy, provided that the proxy appointed is a Member and represents no more than two other Members at such meeting. Any business may be brought before or dealt with at any adjourned Meeting which might have been brought before or dealt with at the original Meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same.

IX DISCIPLINE

30 Resolution of Disputes

- 30.1 Disputes amongst Members should, as much as possible, be resolved in accordance with principles set out in Matthew 18:15-20, Luke 17:3, Galatians 6:1, 1 Corinthians 5:1-5 and 1 Corinthians 6:1-8. Without limiting the generality of the said passages of scripture, the following procedure should, as much as possible, be adopted where a dispute occurs amongst Members (defined hereafter as an "Individual"):
- an Individual who believes that he has been wronged by another Individual for whatever reason should confront such Individual with an explanation of the wrong which is alleged to have occurred;
 - if the Individual so confronted does not listen to the Individual who has confronted him or her, or if the matter is not resolved, then the Individual who is alleged to have been wronged should confront the Individual who is alleged to have caused the wrong in the presence of one or two other Individuals;
 - if the Individual who is alleged to have done the wrong still does not listen or if the dispute is not resolved, then the Individual who is alleged to have been wronged may refer the matter to the Board, pursuant to the procedure for Discipline set out in Section 33.1 to 33.14 herein.

31 Circumstances Giving Cause for Discipline

- 31.1 An Individual shall be deemed to be under the Discipline of the Church if the Board determines by Resolution that any of the following circumstances have occurred:
- an Individual has evidenced unethical or immoral conduct or behaviour that is unbecoming of a Christian contrary to Biblical principles;
 - an Individual's conduct evidences an unwillingness to either comply with, adhere to or submit to the authority and procedures in the Church Constitution and the current Church Policies;
 - an Individual has propagated doctrines and practices contrary to those set forth in the Statement of Faith or which differ from the Church's traditional understanding of Biblical teaching to a degree which is divisive; or
 - an Individual has wronged another Individual causing discord or dissension in the Church, with or without malicious intent, that is not repented of, nor has been resolved through the mechanism for dispute resolution set out in Section 30.1 hereof.

32 Restoration through Discipline

- 32.1 Christ's exhortation to watch over one another and to bear one another's burdens in the spirit of meekness and love shall be foremost in the minds of the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for the Discipline of Members. The primary aim of Discipline shall be the restoration of the offender to fellowship with God and with the Church. The Church has not only the right but the duty to practice such Discipline in a Christian manner. In administering Discipline, care shall be taken that the Members carry a worthy witness of their faith before the world both for the sake of the spiritual life of each Member and for the testimony of the Church.

33 Procedure for Discipline

- 33.1 No allegation giving rise to disciplinary action against a Member (defined hereafter as an "Individual") pursuant to Section 31.1 hereof shall be considered by the Church unless such allegation is first set out in a signed written statement given to the Board setting out the nature of the allegation and an explanation of the basis upon which it is made.
- 33.2 If the Board determines on a preliminary basis that the written allegation is invalid, then the allegation shall be dropped and no further disciplinary action against the Individual shall proceed.
- 33.3 If the Board determines on a preliminary basis that the written allegation requires further investigation, then the allegation shall be referred for a hearing as set out in Section 33.4, and the Individual against whom the allegation is made shall be deemed to be under the Discipline of the Church and shall not be entitled to withdraw as a Member without the consent of the Board. The Board, in its discretion, may temporarily suspend the said Individual from any position within the Church until the completion of the Discipline process.
- 33.4 The Board shall convene a hearing to consider the allegation. The Individual shall be given at least 14 days written notice by registered and regular mail at his last known address (which period of time shall include the date of mailing but shall exclude the date of the hearing), of the date, time and place at which the hearing will be held. The notice shall briefly explain the nature of the allegation and advise the Individual that the allegation will be considered by the Board at the hearing. The Individual shall be entitled to attend the hearing to listen to the details of the allegation made and to respond thereto.
- 33.5 The hearing shall be conducted as a board of inquiry by the Board and an Elder shall be appointed by the Board to act as the Chairman of the hearing. The Board shall have responsibility for carriage of the hearing and shall make the determination concerning whether an Individual is to be disciplined at the end of the hearing and if so, what discipline is to be imposed.
- 33.6 The hearing shall not be open to the public nor to the Members. The Individual shall be entitled to be accompanied at the hearing by two Members who may act as observers during the hearing but who shall not be entitled to participate thereat.
- 33.7 Both the Individual and the Board may call any witnesses or evidence that is relevant to the allegation being made. No party to the hearing shall be represented by legal counsel. However, either the Individual or the Board may require that the Church, at the expense of the Church, retain a lawyer or other person with experience in the law of evidence to act as an adjudicator to determine the admissibility of evidence before the hearing.
- 33.8 There shall be an equal allocation of time for the presentation of evidence by both the Board and the Individual. The Board may designate a time limitation on the hearing, provided that such limitation is applied equally to the presentation of evidence by both the Board and the Individual and provided further that notice of such limitation of time is first given to the Individual at least three hours before the hearing is required to end.
- 33.9 All evidence presented before the hearing shall be kept confidential, except such summary facts that the Board determines need to be given to the Members at a subsequent Meeting of Members.
- 33.10 At the end of the hearing, the Board shall convene in private to deliberate on the evidence presented. A two-thirds Vote of the Board shall be required to conclude that the allegation is true; failing which the allegation will be deemed not to be proven, with the result that the Individual shall no longer be subject to disciplinary proceedings by the Church and shall be reinstated as a Member in good standing.
- 33.11 In the event that the Board determines that the allegation is true, then the Board shall decide the appropriate disciplinary action to be implemented, which decision shall be determined by a two-thirds Vote of the Board. Disciplinary action shall be determined and implemented with the intent of both protecting the integrity of the ministry of the Church and restoring the Individual into fellowship pursuant to Luke 17:3 and Galatians 6:1.
- 33.12 Termination of Membership as a disciplinary action shall be deemed appropriate only where no other alternative is available.
- 33.13 The decision of the Board on disciplinary action shall be communicated to the Individual orally or in writing together with reasons therefore as soon as is practical after the decision has been made.
- 33.14 In the event of a serious disciplinary action, the Board shall inform the Members at the next Meeting of Members, or at a special Meeting if deemed necessary. No pronouncement on matters of Discipline by the Church shall be made unless given orally from a prepared text at a Meeting of Members and only after careful and sober consideration has first been made by the Board to avoid, as much as possible, undue or unnecessary embarrassment to the Individual or other undue or unnecessary prejudicial consequences to either the Individual or to the Church as a whole. The facts present shall be only those necessary for Members to understand the seriousness of the matter, and to the extent feasible, names other than that of the Individual shall not be given.

- 33.15 An Individual who has been disciplined or whose Membership has been terminated shall not be barred from public worship unless his presence is disruptive to the peaceful proceedings of the public worship service as determined in the sole opinion of the Board and such Individual is deemed to agree that he may be removed from such public worship service without the necessity of legal action, whether or not such Individual is at that time a Member.
- 33.16 In the event that an Individual who has been disciplined or whose Membership has been terminated attends any other church and that other church does not seek a letter of reference from the Church, then the Lead Pastor or any Elder shall be authorized to advise the other church verbally that the Individual in question has been disciplined by the Church.
- 33.17 In the event that the Individual in question is under the age of 18 when an allegation is made, then the discipline procedure described in this Section shall be modified to require that any notification provided for herein shall also be given to the parents or legal guardians of the Individual who shall be entitled to attend and speak on behalf of such Individual at any hearing provided for herein.

34 Waiver, Mediation and Arbitration

- 34.1 Notwithstanding anything else contained herein, Membership is given upon the strict condition that disciplinary proceedings and the results thereof and any other proceedings or matters carried out in accordance with the Church Constitution shall not give a Member cause for any legal action against either the Church, any Elder, Team Leader, Officer, employee, or Member, that the acceptance of Membership shall constitute conclusive and absolute evidence of a waiver by the Member of all rights of action, causes of action, and all claims and demands against the Church, any Elder, Team Leader, Officer, employee, or Member in relation to disciplinary proceedings and the results thereof and any other proceedings or matters carried out in accordance with the Church Constitution or involving the Church in any manner whatsoever, and that this provision may be pleaded as a complete estoppel in the event that such action is commenced in violation hereof.
- 34.2 In the event that a Member is dissatisfied with any proceedings or the results thereof, or any other matter arising out of the Church Constitution, involving the Member and the Church, if the Member does not violate or circumvent the waiver contained in Section 34.1 or attempt to do so, then that Member may seek to have his concerns resolved through a process of Christian dispute resolution as follows:
- (a) The matter shall first be submitted to a panel of mediators, who are pastors or members of the governing boards of churches which are members of The Evangelical Missionary Church of Canada, whereby the Member appoints one mediator, the Church appoints one mediator and the two mediators so appointed jointly appoint a third mediator.
 - (b) The number of mediators may be reduced from three to one or two upon the agreement of both the Church and the Member.
 - (c) The mediators so appointed shall then meet with the Board and the Member in an attempt to mediate a resolution.
 - (d) If the matter is not resolved through mediation, then the mediators shall arbitrate and decide all issues in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitrations Act of Ontario and the award of the mediators in their role as arbitrators shall be final and binding upon the parties and the judgment once given may be entered by any Court having jurisdiction.
 - (e) All costs of the mediators appointed in accordance with this Section shall be borne equally by the Member and the Church.
